News Release 2019/01

Kelowna, BC, Canada: Pacific Wildcat Resources Corp. (TSXV-PAW.H) (“PAW” or the “Company”) advises that its subsidiaries Cortec Mining Kenya Limited, Cortec (Pty) Limited and Stirling Capital Limited (together, the Claimants) have applied to annul the arbitral award rendered on 22 October 2018, in which the Claimants’ claims against the Republic of Kenya were dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

The application for annulment was filed at the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) in Washington DC on 15 February 2019 (the “Application”). As part of the Application, the Claimants requested that ICSID provisionally stay the enforcement of the award. The annulment proceedings are being supported by a litigation funder.

Further updates will be provided as the proceedings progress.

A copy of the Application can be found on the Company’s website and filed on SEDAR.
