About Pacific Wildcat Resources Corp. – Pacific Wildcat is a TSX Venture Exchange listed Canadian mineral exploration company having the trading symbol “PAW”. PAW owns 100% of Stirling Capital Ltd and Cortec Pty Ltd, two UK companies that between them own a 70% interest in Cortec Mining Kenya Limited, a Kenyan company which holds the Mrima Hill Niobium and Rare Earth Project in Kenya. In July 2013 the Company completed an updated independent Niobium Resource estimate for 47.8 million tonnes at 0.66% Nb<sub>2</sub>O<sub>5</sub> (Indicated Classification) plus 94.4 million tonnes at 0.73 % Nb<sub>2</sub>O<sub>5</sub> (Inferred Classification) at a 0.2% Nb<sub>2</sub>O<sub>5</sub> cut-off. In July 2013 the Company completed an inaugural independent Total Rare Earth Resource estimate for 48.7 million tonnes at 4.44% TREO (Indicated Classification) plus 110.7 million tonnes at 3.61 % TREO (Inferred Classification) at a 1% TREO cut-off. With the Mining Licenses revoked by the Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Mines in 2013, the Company commenced legal action against the Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Mines and others. Following an initial unsuccessful legal action the matter is now before the Kenyan Court of Appeal. For information about Pacific Wildcat Resources Corp. and its development and exploration activities shareholders and other interested parties are invited to visit the company's website at www.pacificwildcat.com. More information on the foregoing mineral resource estimates is included in the Company's news release dated July 29, 2013, titled "High Grade and Large Tonnage Niobium and Rare Earth Resource for Mrima Hill" and in the Technical Report dated September 1, 2013, titled "NI 43-101 Technical Report for the Mrima Hill Niobium and Rare Earth Project, Kwale District, Kenya", which is filed on www.sedar.com and the Company's website. Mr. Benjamin C. Pollard, principal geologist of BMGS Perth Pty Ltd, a qualified person (as defined in NI 43-101) has reviewed and approved the technical information contained in this news release.
